PREFACE.

UTILITY has been the editor's guiding principle in selecting the forms included in this volume. The convenience of the general practitioner has been kept steadily in view. No standard form, it is believed, has been overlooked, and immediately following the typical precedents under each title, have been added clauses adapted to special or unusual cases. In this way repetition has been largely avoided and the volume kept within handy compass. The complete analytical index to all the forms greatly extends the application of the precedents. Care has been used in departures from the common phraseology of older precedents to preserve the operative words established by long usage and the judgment of the courts.

DOMINION CONVEYANCER.

AFFIDAVITS AND DECLARATIONS.

The administration of an oath, affidavit or solemn affirmation by a justice of the peace or other person, except touching a matter whereof such justice or person has jurisdiction or cognizance by some law in force at the time, or except such oath or affirmation is authorized or required by some law in force, is made a misdemeanor by R. S. C. c. 141. For the powers of commissioners, see R. S. O. 1887, c. 62, s. 12; for the powers of notaries public, see R. S. O. c. 153. In cases where there is no authority for administering an oath, the statement should assume the form of a statutory declaration.

Chattel Mortgage to Secure Future Advances.

THIS INDENTURE made (in duplicate) the day of in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and

Between of the of in the County of [hereinafter called the Mortgagor] of the first part; and of the of in the County of [hereinafter called the Mortgagee] of the second part.

Whereas the said Mortgagor has applied to the said
Mortgagee for future advances in money, and for the purpose of enabling the Mortgagor to enter into and carry on business with such advances, the said Mortgagee has this day consented and agreed upon the agreement of the Mortgagor to execute and deliver these presents as security to the Mortgagee for the repayment thereof, to advance to the said Mortgagor the sum of dollars in three sums of dollars cash, the first whereof is to be advanced to the Mortgagor in one month from the date of these presents; the second whereof in two months from the date of these presents; and the third whereof in three months from the date of these presents, and in consideration thereof, the said Mortgagor has this day agreed to execute these presents in order to secure the repayment of the said advances; it being understood and agreed between the parties, however, that the time of repayment thereof shall not be for a longer period than one year from the making of the agreement for such advances, which is the day of the date of these presents.

Now this indenture witnesseth that the Mortgagor, in pursuance of the said agreement, and for the consideration hereinbefore recited, and in consideration of the covenant of the Mortgagee in these presents contained and of the sum of one dollar hath granted, bargained, sold and assigned, and by these presents doth grant, bargain, sell and assign unto the Mortgagee, his executors, administrators and assigns, all and singular, the goods, chattels, personal property and effects, particularly mentioned and described in the schedule hereunto annexed marked "A.," TO HAVE AND TO HOLD, all and singular, the said goods, chattels, personal property and effects hereinbefore granted, bargained, sold and assigned or mentioned, or intended so to be, unto the Mortgagee, his executors, administrators and assigns, to the sole and proper use and behoof of the Mortgagee, his executors, administrators and assigns for ever; provided always, and these presents are upon this condition, that if the Mortgagor, his executors or administrators do and shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the said Mortgagee, his executors, administrators or assigns the full sum of dollars at the end or expiration of ten months from the day of the date of these presents, with interest at the rate of per centum per annum from the date of the several advances, so to be made as aforesaid, on such advances, and do and shall well and truly save harmless the said Mortgagee of and from all loss and damage by reason of these presents.

Then these presents, and every matter and thing herein contained, shall cease, determine and be utterly void to all intents and purposes, anything herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding. And the Mortgagor, for himself, his executors and administrators shall and will warrant and for ever defend by these presents all and singular the said goods, chattels and property unto the Mortgagee, his executors, administrators and assigns, against him the Mortgagor, his executors and administrators, and against all and every other person and persons whomsoever; And the Mortgagor doth hereby for himself, his executors and administrators, covenant, promise and agree to and with the Mortgagee, his executors, administrators and assigns, that he, the said Mortgagor, his executors or administrators, or some or one of them, will well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the said Mortgagee, his executors, administrators or assigns the said sum of _____ dollars, in the above proviso mentioned, with interest as aforesaid, on the day and time and in the manner above limited for the payment thereof. And in case default shall be made in the payment of the said sum of money in the said proviso mentioned, or the interest thereon, or any part thereof, or in case the Mortgagor shall attempt to sell or dispose of or in any way part with the possession of the said goods and chattels, or any of them, or to remove the same, or any part thereof, out of the county of _____ without the consent of the Mortgagee, his executors, administrators or assigns, to such sale, removal or disposal thereof, first had and obtained in writing, or in case the said Mortgagor shall suffer, allow or permit a judgment to be obtained against him for a debt in any Court of Law or Equity, or shall suffer, allow or permit any taxes, rates, duties or assessments whatsoever, for which he now is or hereafter during the currency of these presents may be assessed, to remain unpaid or unsatisfied for a period of seven days after demand made therefor by the proper officer in that behalf, or in case the Mortgagor shall fail in paying his rent arising out of the premises upon which the said goods now are or hereafter may be during the continuance of these presents, six days at least before the same becomes due, or in case default shall be made in the performance of any of the covenants by the Mortgagor in these presents contained, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful for the said Mortgagee, his executors, administrators or assigns, with his or their servant or servants, and with such other assistant or assistants as he or they may require at any time during the day to enter into and upon any lands and tenements, houses and premises where-soever and whatsoever, where the said goods and chattels, or any part thereof, may be, and for such persons to break and force open any door, locks, bolts, bars, fastenings, hinges, gates, fences, houses, buildings, enclosures and places, for the purpose of taking possession of and removing the said goods and chattels ; and upon and from and after the taking possession of such goods and chattels as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful, and the Mortgagee, his executors, administrators or assigns, and each or any of them is and are hereby authorized and empowered to sell the said goods and chattels, or any of them, or any part thereof, at public auction or private sale, as to him, them or any of them may seem meet, and from and out of the proceeds of such sale in the first place to pay and reimburse himself or themselves all such sum and sums of money as may then be due by virtue of these presents, and all such expenses as may have been incurred by the Mortgagee, his executors, administrators or assigns, in consequence of the default, neglect or failure of the Mortgagor, his executors, administrators or assigns, in payment of the said sum of money with interest thereon as above mentioned, or in consequence of such sale or removal as above mentioned ; and in the next place to pay unto the Mortgagor, his executor or administrators and assigns, all such surplus as may remain after such sale, and after payment of all such sum and sums of money and interest thereon as may be due by virtue of these presents at the time of such seizure, and after payment of the costs and charges and expenses incurred by such seizure and sale as aforesaid ;

PROVIDED, that the mortgagee, his executors, administrators or assigns may, in default of payment of any of the payments of interest or instalments hereinbefore mentioned, or any part thereof, distrain for the whole principal sum then unpaid.

PROVIDED ALWAYS, nevertheless, that it shall not be incumbent on the mortgagee, his executors, administrators or assigns, to sell and dispose of the said goods and chattels, but that in case of default of payment of the said sum of money with interest thereon as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the mortgagee, his executors, administrators or assigns, peaceably and quietly to have, hold, use, occupy, possess and enjoy the said goods and chattels, without the let, molestation, eviction, hindrance or interruption of him, the said mortgagor, his executors, administrators or assigns, or any of them, or any other person or persons whomsoever :

And the mortgagor doth hereby further covenant, promise and agree, to and with the mortgagee, his executors, administrators and assigns, that in case the sum of money realized under any such sale as above mentioned shall not be sufficient to pay the whole amount due at the time of such sale, that the mortgagor, his executors or administrators, shall and will forthwith pay or cause to be paid unto the mortgagee, his executors, administrators or assigns, all such sum and sums of money, with interest thereon, as may then be remaining due, as well also as all costs and expenses as may have been incurred by the mortgagee in and about such seizure and sale.

And the mortgagor doth put the mortgagee in full possession of the said goods and chattels, by delivering to him these presents in the name of all the said goods and chattels, at the sealing and delivery hereof :

And the mortgagor further covenants with the mortgagee that he will, during the continuance of this mortgage, and any and every renewal thereof, insure the chattels and property hereinbefore mentioned, against loss or damage by fire, in some insurance office authorized to transact business in Canada, in the sum of not less than dollars, and will pay all premiums and moneys necessary for that purpose three days at least before the same become due, and will, on demand, assign and deliver over to the said mortgagee, his executors and administrators, the policy or policies of insurance and receipts thereto appertaining: Provided, that if on default of payment of said premiums or sums of money by the mortgagor, in manner and at the times aforesaid, the mortgagee, his executors or administrators may pay the same, and such sums of money shall be added to the debt hereby secured (and shall bear interest at the same rate from the date of such payment), and shall be repayable with the principal sum hereby secured.

And in consideration of the execution of these presents the said mortgagee covenants for himself, his executors, administrators and assigns with the mortgagor, his executors, administrators or assigns that he, the mortgagee, his executors, administrators and assigns will faithfully advance the said sum of dollars to the said mortgagor in manner and at times hereinbefore specified.

In witness whereof, etc.

FORM 478.

*Form of Notice to Contractors to proceed with Work.

Whereas, by an agreement dated the day , 18 , made between (therein and hereinafter designated as the said contractors), of one part, and the , (therein and hereinafter designated as the said employer), of the other part, for the consideration therein appearing, the said contractors covenanted and agreed with the said employer to execute the works required for constructing and completing, etc. (describe work), as the same were set forth and described in the specification, bill of quantities, schedule of prices, and plans in the said agreement referred to; and covenanted and agreed to observe and perform all covenants and provisions set out in such specification; and that all the powers, rights and privileges mentioned therein and conferred thereby, in respect of such work, should and might be exercised according to the true intent and meaning thereof; and whereas, by the said agreement, it was provided that, if the said contractors should not complete the said works within the period limited for that purpose, or if, from any cause whatever (not arising from any act or acts done, or omitted to be done, by the said employer contrary to the true intent of the said agreement) they should be prevented from or delayed in proceeding with the completion of the said works according to the said specifications. It should be lawful for the said employer, without any previous notice being given to the said contractors, to take the said works entirely or in part out of their hands, and to employ any other contractor or contractors, workman or workmen, either by contract or by measure or value, or otherwise, proceed with the said works and complete the same; and that in such case the said contractors should only be entitled to receive such sums as shall have actually accrued due at the time of the works being taken out of their hands, and all expenses incurred by so doing shall be deducted and retained from the money due to the original contractors, or shall be recoverable as liquidated damages by action at law or otherwise; and whereas, by the said specification, it was also agreed that should the engineer be at the time dissatisfied with the nature or mode of proceeding with or at the rate of progress or maintenance of the works, or any part thereof, he shall have full power to procure and make use of all the labor and materials which he may deem necessary, deducting the cost of such labor and materials from the money that may be then due, or that may become due, to the contractors; but it was expressly declared that the possession of this power by the engineer should not in any degree relieve the contractors from their obligations to proceed in the execution of and to complete the works with the requisite expedition, or to maintain them as thereafter mentioned, and it was provided that, should the contractors fail to proceed in the execution of the works in the manner and at the rate of progress required by the engineer, or to maintain the said works as thereafter mentioned to the satisfaction of the engineer, the contract should, at the option of the employer, but not otherwise, be considered void as far as relates to the works remaining to be done, and all sums of money that might be due to the contractors, together with all the materials and implements in their possession, and all sums of money named as penalties for the non-fulfilment of the contract, should be forfeited to the employer, and the amount should be considered as ascertained damages for breach of contract, and whereas the said contractors have not completed the said works within the period limited for that purpose; and have not been prevented or delayed from proceeding with the completion of the said works according to the said specification by any act or acts done or omitted to be done by the said employer, but great delay has occurred in the completion of the same; and whereas, the engineer mentioned in the said specification is dissatisfied with the nature or mode of proceeding with and at the rate of progress of the works, and the contractors have failed to proceed in the execution of the works in the manner and at the rate of progress required by said engineer. Now the said employer, doth hereby give the said , contractors and each of you notice that he will, at the expiration of one week from the date hereof, take the said works entirely out of your hands, and will, if need be, employ other contractors, workmen, etc., to proceed with the works and complete the same, and also the said engineer on their behalf will procure and make use of such labor and materials as he may deem necessary, deducting the cost thereof as in the agreement provided. And the said employer gives you further notice that the said contract shall be considered void as far as relates to the works remaining to be done, and that the sums of money, materials, implements and penalties hereinbefore mentioned shall be and hereby are forfeited to the said employer.

FORM 546.

Specification for an Art or Process.

To all whom it may concern :

Be it known that we, Marion Ellsworth, of Chicago, County of Cook, and State of Illinois, gentleman, and

Joseph Richard Shaw, of Indianapolis, County of Marion, and State of Indiana, gentleman, have jointly invented a new and useful improvement in the art or process of separating smut and other impurities from wheat, and we do hereby declare that the following is a full, clear and exact description of the same :

Take of lime, newly slaked and while yet warm, one and a half pound to each one hundred pounds of wheat. Mix the lime well with the wheat, let it stand one hour, then pass it through a smut mill in the usual way and it will be found that all the lime, smut, dirt and other impurities of every kind attached to the wheat, and which no smut mill without our liming process will fully separate, will be entirely removed, and the flour will be as white and as sweet as though made from the best of wheat.

We are aware that lime has before been used for the purpose of cleaning wheat, being first mixed with the grain as above proposed and the whole being then passed through smut mill; but in all previous processes, so far as we are aware, the lime has been used in a cold state, and for this reason such processes prove ineffectual. We propose to take lime newly slaked, and while yet warm.

What we claim as our invention, and desire to secure by patent, is: the process of cleaning wheat by mixing with it lime newly slaked and warm before passing it through a smut mill, so as to cleanse the wheat from all impurities, substantially as described.
